Will do! I am actually really excited about it -- we'll see what you think . . .

Sounds great! I would love to get the book -- or at least what you have finished before Monday evening as I am going away for a week and would love to read your book on the road!

Hi Emily -

I'm just checking in to let you know I'm about 3/4 of the way through the re-write. I'm incorporating all of the elements we discussed. If you'd like to read any part of what I have so far, let me know. Otherwise, I am really strongly shooting for completion by the end of this weekend before I head back to Alaska on Monday for work. (It's been slow going due to work commitments with my practice AND trepidation on my part with some of the changes). But, I'm excited with where all of this has taken Anna's character -- !

If I don't hear from you, I'll plan to either send to you Sunday night or give you a status report.

Hi Emily -

Here it is in both Word and PDF. I am too close to this project now to say much about it -- will have to see what you think now that the changes are in place. I've re-written the intro pages and subtly added the foreshadowing we discussed while trying to polish the writing as I went.

Take care and I'll look forward to hearing from you. Please let me know you received this.

Warm regards,

Lynne

Hi Lynne,

I am glad the package arrived. Sorry it was so tardy. The holidays are the black hole of the year! Please just send me the whole manuscript. It sounds like you made a lot of changes and I'd love the chance to read the whole book again!

All best,
Emily

Hi Emily -

I have the contract (thanks for the pen! I feel so official :)) and have made what I believe are the suggested revisions to the ms -- and then some. What format should I use to send the ms back to you?

Also, do you want me to tell you the changes I made so you see them as you're reading or do you just want to see it all fresh?

Thanks and I am so very excited to see what you think!!!!

Hi Lynne,

I am sorry to say the agreement is just back to you now...the holidays got away from me and I forced myself to take a bit of a break over the last week to spend time with my family. It was great, but it feels nice to be back to work too!

I would be happy just read the novel again in its entirety. I think that is the best way to truly gauge the effectiveness of a novel. I can read quickly and then we can talk. If there's something you want me to be especially want me to focus on before reading, we can talk beforehand too.

I am really looking forward to it!

Best,
Emily

Hi Emily --

Happy New Year!

I am expecting to complete the re-writes we discussed in December early this week. I haven't received the contract back yet though -- ! That mail is something else. When would you like the re-writes? What format, etc. and then when to discuss? I'm very excited with the changes and hope you will be too.

Kind regards,

Lynne Freeman
